DISTRICT GUARD MAY NOT MARCH

Sum of $1,500 Needed to Defray Expenses of Participating in Parade.

1,766 MEN ARE AFFECTED

Washingtonians Are Conjecturing on What Kind of Weather Will Arrive on March 4.

Unless the financial affairs of the District National Guard experience in the near future a sudden and unexpected improvement, that organization will not be able to participate in the inaugural parade. There is not the money in the treasury of the local troop to defray the expense, and where it is coming from is now an unanswered question.

The cost, it is estimated, would come to about $1,500. In the last appropriation bill no provision was made for this item, and unless some one can devise ways and means of raising it soon not one of the 1,766 men of the District National Guard will be in line on March 4.

A large part of the cost of entering the parade lies in the hire of horses. There will also be numerous musicians to pay and other incidental expenses to meet.

HUNDREDS STRIVING FOR THE $675 SCHUBERT PLAYER PIANO

The Advocate is enlisting enthusiastic workers for the latest special award in The Herald's $25,000 contest.

This time it is the famous Schubert Player Piano, a $675 instrument, that is being offered as a prize for the perfect construction and beautiful tone.

The Advocate has purchased this piano from the Joseph Hall Chase Piano Company, 127 G Street Northwest, and will give it to the person casting the most votes in The Herald's contest between the dates of January 18 and February 1, 1913.

As with former special awards, the person casting the votes need not be a contestant, though all votes must be cast for some contestant. The special competition is open to all and involves absolutely no expense. Simply ask for votes everywhere you make a purchase and every time. You are invited to visit the contest building, 714 Thirteenth Street Northwest, and see for yourself the magnificent quality of the Schubert Player Piano. Nine p. m., February 1, is the closing hour for this special balloting.

SOUTHERNERS TO MEET.

Society of South Making Preparations for Annual Banquet.

The Southern Society of Washington will hold its annual meeting next Friday evening at the Confederate Memorial Hall, 1222 Vermont Avenue Northwest. Officers will be elected and plans made for the annual dinner, a large number of applications for membership will come up for action at this meeting. A program consisting of musical selections will be presented and a number of addresses will be delivered.

The present officers of the society are: President, Representative Richard P. Hobson; secretary, Dr. Clarence J. Owen; financial secretary, Dr. A. J. McKelvey; treasurer, R. L. Montague; chaplain, Rev. William Snyder; vice presidents, Senators Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida and Le Roy Percy of Mississippi; Interstate Commerce Commissioner J. C. Clements; Maj. Homer W. Wadsworth, Jr., D. D., Dr. T. P. Chapman, Speaker Champ Clark, and Representative H. M. Jacobson.

Headed to Address Graduates.

Representative Redfield of New York will address the graduates of Business High School at their mid-term commencement exercises January 28. Dr. William M. Davidson, Superintendent of Schools, will present the diploma. Dr. Redfield, preceding the exercises trophies for the best drillers in the cadet battalion will be awarded. The Du Pont bunting cup will be presented by Secretary of War Stimson.

PRESS CLUB HOBBY RIDERS ANNOUNCED

Alfred Henry Lewis Will Start Annual
"Derby" Next Thursday Night.

What promises to be the greatest thoroughbred array of hobby horses ever run in the National Press Club derby will be sent to the "Stables" of Alfred Henry Lewis next Thursday night.

The race is advertised as six furlongs or as much farther as one can go in ten minutes. Starter Lewis has promised that the winners will be the "Stables" and that he will not start anything he can not finish.

Five crones of national reputation, mounted on their favorite hobbies, will be off to a flying start at the edifice of Starter Lewis. The riders are to be Henry W. Savage, the impresario; Edward B. More, Commissioner of Patents; George von L. Meyer, Secretary of the Navy; Dr. William A. White, psychiatrist and superintendent of St. Elizabeth's; and John Philip Sousa, the bandmaster.

The riders are grooming their steeds for the grueling race and several surprises are liable to be sprung. Mr. Savage, who has been almost as successful as a real estate man as he has a theatrical man, may tell of the deals in which he earned the title "Tycoon."

Although called upon almost every day to talk battleships, Secretary Meyer's hobby is ice-shating.

A little dissertation on the moon will be the theme of Dr. White's speech. Mr. Sousa will tell of the trials and tribulations of a struggling author. Mr. More will deliver a thesis on how to re-solution he has hit upon to distinguish himself from the rest of the Moores in Washington.

PROMOTE SEX HYGIENE.

Plans Are Made to Teach It to the Children.

Prominent women of Washington have organized a committee for promoting sex hygiene among children of the Capital. Among those interested in the movement are Mrs. Huntington Wilson, wife of the Assistant Secretary of State; Mrs. Ernest M. Roberts, retiring president of the Congressional Club; Mrs. Henry C. Perkins, president of the National Woman's Alliance; Dr. Elzora C. Felt; Mrs. William A. White, psychiatrist and superintendent of St. Elizabeth's; and Miss Edith Westcott, principal of Western High School.

A meeting was held Saturday afternoon in Epiphany Church to form a preliminary organization. The object of the organization will be to communicate knowledge to young boys and girls while in school.

G. A. B. ENCAMPMENT.

Department of Potomac to Meet on February 24.

The forty-fifth annual encampment of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., will be held at Grand Army Hall on the evening of February 24. Prior to the encampment the department headquarters administration will meet Friday, February 24, at 8 o'clock for the transaction of such business as may properly come before it. Posts or individual members of the G. A. R. having resolutions to present to the encampment have been requested to forward them to headquarters before February 19.

A banquet in honor of Commander-in-Chief Alfred R. Beers will be given February 25. An order naming the committee of arrangements for the banquet and also naming committees for arrangements for the celebration of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, February 12, and the encampment committee on resolutions, report of council commendations of officers and resolutions, has been issued by the local headquarters under date of January 24.

DELEGATES TO ROAD CONGRESS APPOINTED

Twenty-nine Governors Arrange to Have Their States Represented at Convention Here.

Twenty-nine Governors have named delegates to represent their States in the second Federal Aid Good Roads Convention called by the American Automobile Association to take place in Washington March 4 and 5. Correspondence with the executives in the remaining States indicates that the representation may cover many Commonwealths.

The volume of money pouring in upon the A. A. A. at its national headquarters gives convincing evidence that attendance at the forthcoming convention will be twice as large as at the first convention a year ago, and that it will be the most important gathering of good roads enthusiasts ever held in this country.

Many of the Governors who have appointed delegates are very much interested in the Federal aid propaganda and show that they intend to make it their business to aid the cause in any way possible.

The Maine State Board of Trade has named thirteen delegates, representing every section of the State. The Chamber of Commerce of Raleigh, N. C., has named eleven; the Chamber of Commerce of Birmingham, Ala., five; the Western Montana Association of Commercial Clubs, ten; the Inland Empire Federation of Commercial Clubs of Spokane, Wash., five; with like representation from the Board of Trade of Lincoln, Neb.; Wichita, Kans.; Springfield, Ohio; Stamford, Conn.; Little Rock, Ark.; Atlanta, Ga.; Louisville, Ky.; Omaha, Neb.; Albany, N. Y.; Toledo, Ohio; Newark, N. J.; Kansas City, Mo.; and a score more of the large towns of the country.

WALTER E. CALLEY DEAD.

Patent Attorney Dies in Chicago Following an Operation.

Walter England Calley, son of Rev. Dr. Walter Calley, of Boston, a resident of Washington for several years, where he was assistant examiner in the Patent Office, died yesterday morning in Columbus Hospital, Chicago, following an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Calley, who took the degree of bachelor of law at George Washington University, was also a graduate of the University of Chicago and Massachusetts Institute of Technology; and since September had been patent attorney for the Ohmer-Pare Register Company, of Dayton, Ohio. Mr. Calley was born in Bethlehem, Pa., December 25, 1881. He is survived by his father.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

The will of John Jones, made twenty-nine years ago, has just been filed for probate in Montgomery, Ala.
